The Excelsior of '52

Published at Lynden, Washington
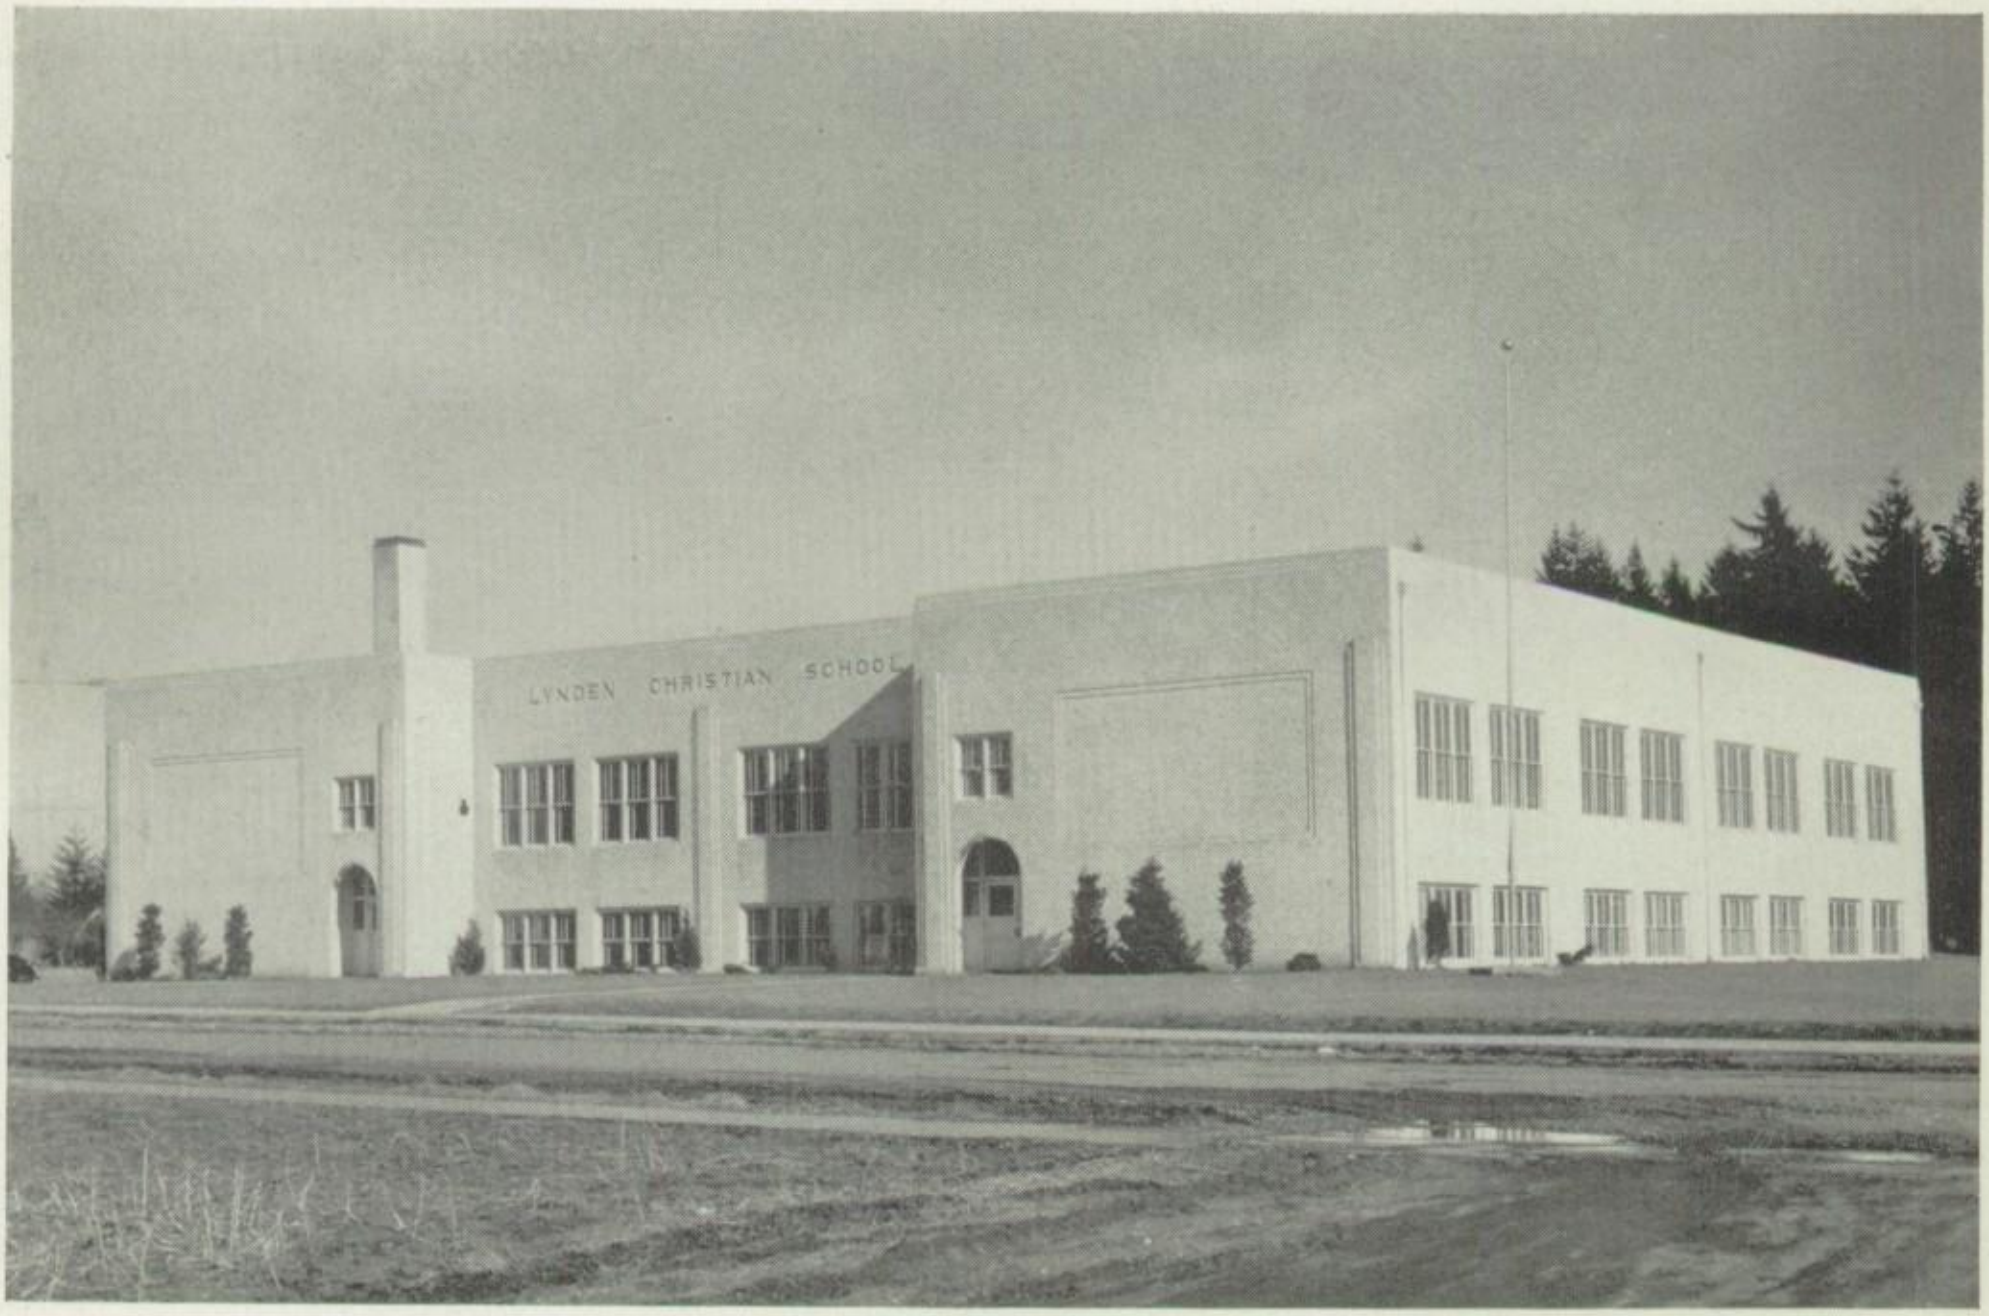
By the Students of
LYNDEN CHRISTIAN HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

Having donated much time and labor to make this annual a success, we, the annual staff of 1952, are once again pleased to present this copy of the "Excelsior."

Paging through the 1952 "Excelsior," you will find that we have chosen 'Service" for our theme this year. We have compared the training which we receive here in our Christian School for service in God's Kingdom to that training one receives in the army for service to one's country. This training we have received by the help of our parents, the school board, and the faculty.

We sincerely hope that you will enjoy the sketches of our school life of this past year contained in this "Excelsior," and we also hope that our efforts have been worth while.



DEDICATION

In the past four years students at Lynden Christian High have become accustomed to seeing a familiar, overall-clad figure around school to whom we would call out an affectionate, "Hi, Hugo!"

For four years Mr. Hugo Van Ry has served our school as a faithful and diligent janitor. Every afternoon finds him sweeping up behind the students. No basketball game, party, or meeting is ever too late for him to stay until the end to lock up after it is all over. All the tasks of cleaning and maintenance have always been completed, whether they be small or large.

Not only has Hugo fulfilled all his janitorial duties, but he also has become the friend of every student. He is never too busy to smile at and greet someone who is passing by. Often he takes the time for a friendly little chat in the hall. He has even gone so far as to favor us with his musical talents at times.

It is in recognition of his faithful service and for the "little extras" which he has put into his work that we do dedicate this 1952 "Excelsior" to our beloved janitor, Hugo Van Ry. It is our hope that he will continue long in his work and may he have God's blessing on everything he does.

. . . Headquarters

Every organization has its center of operations and authority. In our Christian High School our School Board occupies such a place. Many and varied are the tasks that demand their attention. They lay down precepts and receive reports from their Army Staff. So, too, the Student Body has its headquarters in the Student Council. The Student Council, which is composed of the officers from every class, plans and carries out many activities of the school.

The board of your school congratulates you upon the successful completion of your studies, and wishes you God's richest blessing in whatever field of endeavor you may enter.

As children of the covenent you have received many blessings. It is indeed a great privilege to be born in a Christian home, to have Christian parents, who fulfilled their covenental obligations by teaching you at a tender age the ways of the Lord; by sending you to a school whose teaching is God-centered, so you had an opportunity to develop your talents more and more in conformity to the will of God.

It is therefore the board's sincere wish and prayer that as members of the class of 1952 you may feel the responsibilities of using your gifts and your talents in this service.

May the theme "Service" as presented in this annual ever be your motto in the years that lie ahead.

LYNDEN CHRISTIAN SCHOOL BOARD

Martin Houg, President.

STUDENT COUNCIL

STUDENT COUNCIL

Guided by Student Body President Sid Kornelis and Faculty Advisors, Mr. Koops and Mr. Snapper, the Student Council again spent an active year directing the business affairs and activities of the student body.

To begin the year the Student Council put on the annual "Mixer" to help the Freshmen and new students to become acquainted with the rest of the students. To build up the treasury pledges were received from the student body, with free student body tickets being given to those who contributed. Rules governing assemblies were put out and a complete schedule of assemblies was drawn up at the beginning of the school year. Several special assemblies were also provided for the students.

The Student Council was also again very active in the field of sports. Noon-hour intramural football, basketball, and softball tournaments were held. They also aided the basketball teams by providing new shirts for a finer appearance, proper equipment for a better game, and by putting on the annual yell and song leaders' election to promote school spirit.

To help a worthwhile activity get started they cooperated with the Drama Club in sponsoring the debate teams. Reference materials were provided and the expenses to the C. P. S. Invitational Forensics Tournament were paid.

The Council deserves a word of thanks for their activities, and may they continue their work in years to come.

. . . Officers

In the army one of the factors which determines the making of a good soldier is the kind of training he has received from his officers. If a soldier has been trained well he will be able to fight the battles of war bravely and victoriously. Such is the case with our teachers. It is their task to train the students in the various phases of learning which will better equip us to meet the battles of life. The fruits of their work will be proven in the kind of lives we live.

We are very grateful to our teachers for the Christian training they have given us in the past year. We feel that the things we have been taught will enable us to be better soldiers for Christ.

TO OUR GRADUATES:

Men inducted into the military service of our country are given a period of intensive training in "boot" camp to condition them for the rigors of military life. They are outfitted and equipped. Then follows a period of more specialized training in preparation for the exact position the soldier will occupy during the heat of battle. He is taught how to use his weapons. He is taught to be ever on the alert—always on guard, watchful for the enemy. Neglect of this duty brings the army's most severe penalty.

You have spent twelve years in the training camp of life. You have been given equipment which will help you in the Christian warfare against the forces of Satan. Some of you will continue and receive more specialized training. Be sure to take the armor and equipment of the Christian soldier. (Eph. 6:10-20).

We are all engaged in this battle of life. Not one misses the onslaughts of the Evil One, no matter what occupation he may follow. May you all recognize the enemy, resist, and vigorously attack him. (Eph. 6:12). I hope that many of you will make the "supreme sacrifice" by giving your entire life in full-time service in Kingdom work. Wherever you are and whatever you do, "Be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of His might." Then there will not be a weak spot at your place in the battle line. The victory is assured.

"To him that overcometh
A crown of life shall be,
He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally."

MR. B. KOOPS, Superintendent.

"Enter here to learn, go forth to serve—"

so reads an inscription above the entrance doors of a certain educational institution within our land. Twelve long years ago individuals who today comprise our graduating class made their beginnings on an extended period of formal instruction. During these years of Christian training in acquiring a knowledge of God and His revealed universe, forming Christian attitudes and ideals, developing useful skills, building character and personalities to reflect the glories of His love, another class stands at the threshold of graduation. Very soon their tasks in this institution will be completed and honors await those who have labored faithfully and perservered to the end.

But graduation should mark the beginning of a new era in life—a life of service. Having equipped you with the best instruction and influence that L. C. S. has to offer, graduates of 1952, we now send you forth into a field of labor for service. We trust that your motives may ever be noble and your efforts sincere. Your responsibility will be a heavy one. "For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required." The field is large and the challenges many. We send you forth as talented youths capable of accepting these challenges, not in your own strength and knowledge, but in His who hath said, "Ask, and ye shall receive."

May we in time remember you as those who are appreciative for your training, loyal to your school and the cause it represents, faithful to your calling, and devoted to your God. With this hope we send you forth —to serve.

. . . The Army

As members of the Lynden Christian High School we are thankful for the army of education in which we are enlisted. The underclassmen are striving to reach the same high goal as the Sergeants of our army. Our predecessors have been good examples to the Recruits who needed guidance in their new experiences, to the Privates, who have not yet attained their goal, and to the Corporals who must follow closely in their footsteps. But preeminent in our youthful minds is the thought that we are soldiers in the army of our God, fighting for a common goal: the glorification of His name.

MEMORIES OF OUR HIGH SCHOOL DAYS

It indeed is amazing how quickly four years can pass by. Looking ahead when we were freshmen we felt that our goal was a long way off. Now, looking back, we wonder at the speed with which time flies.

There are many happy memories, but there are also the anxious moments. Outstanding of the latter is the beginning of our four-year journey through L. C. H. S. Picture to yourself a group of young, inexperienced, and for the most part, timid freshmen, and you can readily see the position we were in. It was bad enough that we were shy and "green," but the upperclassmen, especially the "mighty" Seniors (they all call themselves that), added to our discomfort by seeming to know it all. As we look back now, when we are the "mighty" Seniors, we cannot help but laugh a little at our inexperience.

After the first plunge into high school life we took up the life with vim and vigor, under the leadership of our faculty advisors, Miss Shoemaker and Mr. Van Alten.

After spending what we called a hard-earned vacation, we came back ready for work once more. We felt rather good, knowing that we were now sophomores and we weren't going to keep it a secret. But we soon found out that a sophomore is only a sophomore, and nothing but a sophomore. We weren't going to be dismayed, however. We plunged into our work this year under the leadership of Mr. Ubels. The activities which characterized our sophomore year were the assembly given to the Student Body and the class party given for a classmate who was leaving.

Before we knew it a new year had begun and we were upstairs as Juniors. Our faculty sponsor for the year was Mr. De Boer. Our largest undertaking as Juniors was the putting on of the Junior-Senior Banquet to honor the Seniors. The beginning of the year was spent in raising funds for the banquet and the end of our year we spent in working out the banquet around the theme, "In a Little Dutch Garden." One other highlight of our Junior year was the receiving of our class rings.

Then before we knew it we were in our Senior year, with Mr. Snapper as our faculty sponsor. Since we were in our last year, our activities were more numerous and involved more responsibility. We began the year by putting on the year's first assembly program for the Student Body. Later in the fall we enjoyed our Senior Class party at Berthuson's Park. All through the year we enjoyed the honor of being the leaders in the school and of receiving special privileges because we were Seniors.

Our high school career climaxed at the end of the year in a series of events. First we were honored at the Junior-Senior Banquet given for us by the Junior Class. Chapel was taken over one week, with an excellent program being given. Our last outing together was held on Senior Day. Then followed Baccalaureate and Graduation, and our high school career was over.

As a class we had enjoyed much together, but we had also received honor through individual members. One of our girls was privileged to attend Girls' State when we were Juniors. In our Senior year two of our members made up the Debate Team which won first place at the C. P. S. Forensics Tournament. One of our members placed in the C. P. S. Extemporaneous Speaking contest, and one of our members placed in the V. F. W. Auxiliary Essay contest. Several of our members have also excelled in music and sports through the four years.

And now we are facing our future, with the road of Life ahead of us. Many happy experiences lie ahead ,and probably many sad ones, also. But we will go bravely onward with Christ as our aid and guide, and everything we do we will strive to let our light shine.

Training

Spiritual and temporal training are offered to the recruits in the camp of the Lynden Christian High School. This training promotes Christian fellowship between teachers and students, a goal which every Christian school seeks to attain. It gives opportunity to attribute glory to God in the singing of His praises, hearing His Word expounded, or by displaying the talents with which we are endowed by God. The enjoyment derived from these special opportunities are manifest in the appreciative way in which the students respond to them and the cooperation shown.

The training derived from classroom work and these special privileges better enables the student to carry on in this life as well as preparing him for the life to come. We as Christians believe this to be an important part of our education. Just as in the army of our nation men are trained to be better soldiers of our country, it is the goal of our school and these extra activities to make the students better soldiers of the Cross.

The Mission Club

The Mission Club is open to every high school student. The students attending are interested in missionary work and meet every other Monday evening in the high school assembly room.

We have during the past year given Thanksgiving baskets to some needy families. We have also sent Christmas cards to the Indian and Foreign Missionaries from whom we received several letters in response, and a box to the Indian Field. A New Testament and Psalms Braille Bible was also given to a blind woman.

Our meetings are opened with prayer and then turned over to the committee in charge. This committee must provide a song leader, a pianist, a scripture reader, a speaker, a special number, and a project to work on for the month. We then have a discussion, after which the meeting is closed with prayer.

We wish to invite all interested students to join the Mission Club next year and help make it a larger and more active club.

Drama Club

The Drama Club this past year has again been very active. Two one-act plays, "The Whirlwind" and "The Confessional," were presented to the student body, under the direction of a few Drama Club members.

On the evenings of March 5 and 7 "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" was presented under the excellent direction of Mr. Marion Snapper, our advisor and director. A very large crowd attended both performances.

Due to the fact that the play was given in March it was impossible for the cast picture to be placed in this year's "Excelsior." The cast, however, was as follows:

Chad Buford	EVERT VERMEER

. . . Off Duty

A soldier enters the army for one primary purpose — to be trained to defend his country. As a result he spends the major part of his time in classes, drills, and other training courses. However, the government also realizes the need for relaxation and diversion from work, and the soldier is given his off-duty hours in which he may be able to leave the grounds, go to Servicemen's Clubs, or enter other diversions which are offered.

Our primary purpose in attending high school is to be trained for our future life. This is done in our spiritual and temporal training. However, we also have our off-duty hours. We can join any of the many clubs which have been organized or we can enter the various sports offered for both the boys and girls for our relaxation and diversion from our regular duties.

CLUBS

For students interested in extra-curricular activities, a large number of varied club activities are offered. Some of our clubs serve the purpose of offering training in a specific field, while others require special attainments for membership or are offered just for relaxation from the regular classroom duties.

In the latter group we have our Boys' and Girls' "L" Clubs. Anyone earning their letter and sweater is eligible for membership in these clubs. The Junior and Senior Girls' Clubs consist of all the girls in the Student Body. They have taken up several projects for the betterment of our school, and each year they put on the annual Mothers' Tea. The Camera Club is open to all Junior and Senior students interested in studying photography. The Ushers Club is a rather new club, organized for the purpose of providing capable ushers at the public programs. Membership in it is open to all interested Junior and Senior girls. And for the students who excel in scholastic activities there is the Torch Club. This club is open to Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors who have earned a certain amount of points on grades each year.

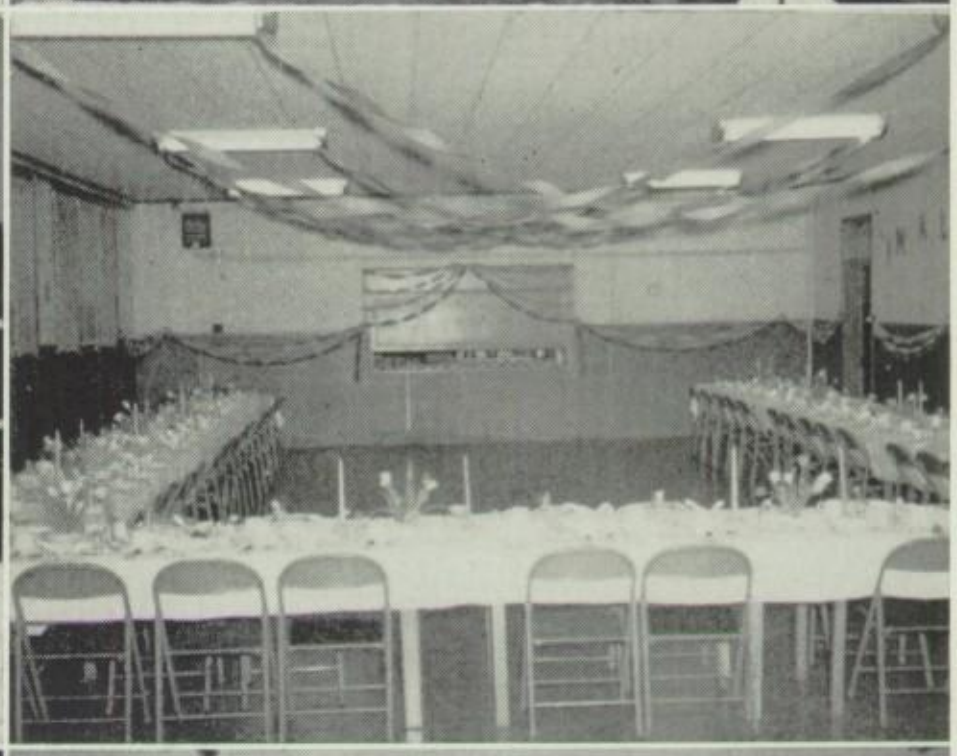
INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL

Every fall, with the beginning of school, we also have the return of football. Each noon hour finds the majority of the high school boys, divided into six teams, out on the football field engaged in the intramural tournaments. The keen competitors are kept in line by the teachers, who substitute as referees. This intramural sport indeed plays an important part in the life of the high school boys.

. . . Furlough

As members of the army of the Lynden Christian High School we have our off duty hours—furloughs. Each soldier in the Army of our country has his leisure hours, week-end passes, and furloughs. Picnics, parties, and intramural competition take up our leisure hours. Even though a minority part of our time is devoted to these activities, nevertheless they serve as a valuable part of our socialized training program.



JUNIOR - SENIOR BANQUET

Gathering in the Assembly Room on April 27, 1951, the Senior Class, under the guidance of the Juniors, were taken into a festive looking "Little Dutch Garden." Little Dutch dolls were seen strolling down a pathway among the tulips and daffodils toward the slow-turning windmill. Sitting among the tulips and wooden shoes, the guests enjoyed their meal, served by the Dutch-costumed waitresses. Intermixed with their meal were a welcome, musical numbers, a reading, and the Senior response.

Under the able guidance of Mr. Norman De Boer and Mrs. Kok, the hard-working chairmen and committees of the Junior Class were able to give a very excellent banquet to the Senior Class of 1951.
